YESTERDAY'S RECORD.

Total Sales (shares)..... 2,168,924

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

New York, April 19.—In a wild and tumultuous market, a new high record for transactions in securities was established on the Stock Exchange Friday.

Total recorded sales of stocks ran up to the enormous aggregate of 2,168,924 shares with sales of bonds amounting to a par value of $6,940,000. The previous high total for stocks was on January 7, when sales ran up to 2,112,772, and since that time day after day has resulted in aggregates of from 1,500,000 to 1,800,000 and more.

The pace at which the trading was conducted Friday is probably without precedent in the New York or any other exchange. Yesterday's traders stood amazed at the manner in which blocks of one, two, five and ten thousand shares were flung about and reeled off the tape.

The record of transactions was far behind their expectation, and at the last the ticker clicked merrily away for a full twelve minutes after the going had stopped. What chance a speculator in an office had under such conditions can be easily imagined.

Just before the close came out one transaction in Union Pacific of 10,000 shares at par. The block was bought by Joseph A. Blau, a broker who is generally identified with Mr. Keene. The movement in Union Pacific, however, the transaction in the common stock of which alone exceeded 200,000 shares, was universally attributed to the "Chicago" party, by which Wall Street now groups the Moore brothers and their followers. John W. Gates and the lesser lights of the iron and steel corporations. The windings of this party in the market during the present interval of riotous speculation must be simply staggering.

Not Based on News.

One peculiarity of the day was that the entire upward movement was brought about without a scrap of news development worthy of the name. Money did ease, to be sure, and prediction of the bank statement were favorable. That was all, and yet prices went up at a rate that would have been remarkable had we wrestled some great national victory from the jaws of defeat.

Activity was not confined to any particular group of stocks, such as on some previous occasions have marked wild speculative movements in the stock market—such movements as, for instance, centered around the time of the "Flower" boom in industrial, on the "Reading Day," or when the "Gates" have been creating demonstrations.

A reference to a Stock Exchange quotation table will show for Friday activity which would be enormous, in Amalgamated Copper, in American Smelters in Atchafalaya in Canada Southern, in Burlington and Erie, in Louisville and Nashville, Missouri, Kansas and Texas, People's Gas, Southern Pacific, Texas and Pacific, Union Pacific and United States Steel.

The buying movement broke out in a dozen parts of the floor at the same time and continued without intermission from the opening to the closing of the board. Each stock started in practically the same manner.

Heavy buying orders appeared. A group of men congregated in a lift, shouting and screaming like demons, bidding wildly for the securities. The result of their efforts was recorded in a thousand different offices, in a thousand cafes and clubs in this city.

TRIED TO SLAY A PROFESSOR
BUT KILLED HER GIRL FRIEND.

Russian Student Who Attempted an Assassination Is Acquitted in a Paris Court—Dramatic Scene at Trial.

Paris, April 18.—Great interest was taken here in the trial of Vera Gelo, the Russian girl student, who was charged with trying to assassinate Professor Deschanel, the aged Senator and father of the President of the Chamber of Deputies, on January 13, by firing a revolver at him just as he concluded a lecture on French literature at the College of France. She was acquitted to-night.

The interest in the case was heightened by the fact that Zelenko, a Russian girl friend of Vera Gelo, who intervened between the latter and Professor Deschanel at the time, and received a bullet in her chest, died in the hospital, after lingering some time in agony.

Professor Deschanel frequently visited the wounded girl at the hospital, and daily sent her bouquets of flowers up to the time of her death. A strange feature of the case was Vera Gelo's obstinate silence as to the nature of the outrage she claims was inflicted on her at Geneva by a man she thought was Professor Deschanel. She suffers from hysteria and medical men believe she is the victim of hallucinations. The nervous twitches of her face as she saw the clock to-day revealed her anguish. A doctor who sat beside her administered ether.

The prisoner burst out sobbing when the judge spoke of Zelenko.

KEPT MARRIAGE A SECRET.

Miss Maybell Fayne of Cincinnati and Arthur B. Lyon Wedded in Kentucky.

For almost a year Miss Maybell Fayne of Cincinnati, O., who is visiting St. Louis, and Arthur B. Lyon of Nashville, Tenn., have kept their wedding a secret.

Miss Fayne is the daughter of the late Doctor T. J. Fayne of Crab Orchard, Ky. She is visiting Mrs. S. P. Fayne, of No. 1801 Washington avenue. While Miss Fayne was visiting friends in Bowling Green, Ky., last May she met Mr. Lyon, to whom she was engaged. He told her he was tired of waiting and it was agreed that they be married in secret. The plan carried out with the exception of a few friends, who witnessed the marriage, no one was the wiser.

SENATOR CLARK HELD UP.

Hackman Goes to His Assistance

SPECIAL BY CABLE.
Paris, April 19.—United States Senator Clark was attacked by two thugs on Wednesday night near the Church of Madeleine and was thrown to the ground by the highwaymen.

A cab driver named Marioulet, witnessing the assault, hurried to the Senator's assistance. He was dispatched in short order by a sand bag, being rendered unconscious.

His interference, however, gave Senator Clark an opportunity to recover, and when the thugs were about to renew their attempt to rob him, were scared off.

Northern Ohio Valley Flooded.
Wheeling, W. Va., April 19.—Reports from all sections in interior West Virginia are alarming and indicate floods within the ensuing twenty-four hours. Rains have been unremitting for thirty-six hours in the Northern Ohio Valley and in the Monongahela, Tygart's Valley, Cheat, Little Kanawha, Big Kanawha, Guyandotte and other tributaries of the Ohio.

Galveston Saloonkeeper Swindled
Out of $10,000 by Two Confidence Men.

Galveston, Tex., April 19.—Michael Vouricovitch, proprietor of the "Four Seasons," one of the leading cafes of the city, has been bunked out of $10,000 and the operators who manipulated the trick are gone. The story as told by Vouricovitch is as follows:

Two well-dressed men made his acquaintance several weeks ago, and by their suave treatment won his confidence and also learned that he had $10,000 in bank. They hypnotized him, he asserts, and while he was under the hypnotic influence compelled him to go to the bank and get the money, telling him it was their intention to go into business, from which large profits would be derived, in which he would share.

Getting the money he gave it to the men and they apparently put it into a box and handed it back to him, telling him to place the box in a vault until their return. He followed their instructions.

This was several weeks ago. After waiting for their return until Friday he became suspicious, opened the box, and found it contained nothing but brown paper.

Vouricovitch was not long communicating his loss to the police authorities, who are now at work on the case.

ENOUGH BLOOD, ENOUGH TEARS

General MacArthur Orders the Release of One Thousand Insurgent Prisoners.

SPECIAL BY CABLE.

Manila, April 19.—Aguinaldo's proclamation to his people was given to the public to-night. It is well received by those of his countrymen who already have seen it. The address is carefully drawn and diplomatically worded, and it is believed, will be received throughout the archipelago with rejoicings, as there can be no doubt that a large majority of the Filipinos long ago were heartily tired of the war.

Among the more intelligent classes it is believed that Aguinaldo's utterance marks the beginning of a new era for the Philippines.

To signalize the importance of the step in the pacification of the country, General MacArthur to-night ordered the release, on swearing allegiance to the United States, of 1,000 insurgent prisoners.

TEXT OF AGUINALDO'S ADDRESS TO HIS PEOPLE.

Manila, April 19.—The following is Aguinaldo's address to the Filipino people, made public this evening:

I believe I am not in error in presuming that the unhappy fate to which my adverse fortune has led me is not a surprise to those who have been familiar with the progress of the war. The lessons, fraught with a full meaning, and which have recently come to my knowledge, suggest with irresistible force that a complete termination of hostilities and lasting peace are not only desirable, but absolutely essential to the welfare of the Philippine Islands.

The Filipinos have never been dismayed at their weakness, nor have they faltered in following the path pointed out by their fortitude and courage. The time has come, however, in which they find their advance along this path to be impeded by an irresistible force, which, while it restrains them, yet enlightens their minds and opens to them another course, presenting them the cause of peace. This cause has been joyfully embraced by the majority of my fellow-countrymen, who have already united around the glorious sovereign banner of the United States.

In this banner they repose their trust and belief that under its protection the Filipino people will attain all those promised liberties which they are beginning to enjoy. The country has declared unmistakably in favor of peace.

So be it. There has been enough blood, enough tears and enough desolation. This wish cannot be ignored by the men still in arms, if they are animated by a desire to serve our noble people, which has thus clearly manifested its will. So do I respect this will, now that it is known to me.

After mature deliberation, I resolutely proclaim to the world that I cannot refuse to heed the voice of a people longing for peace, nor the lamentations of thousands of families yearning to see their dear ones enjoying the liberty and the promised generosity of the great American nation.

By acknowledging and accepting the sovereignty of the United States throughout the Philippine Archipelago, as I now do, and without any reservation whatsoever, I believe that I am serving them, my beloved country. My happiness be thine.

Emilio Aguinaldo

MacArthur of the command of the military forces in the Philippines on June 30, and the present expectation is that a general civil government will be established in the archipelago about that time.

POLICE BOARD'S TWO STRIKING RESOLUTIONS.

Resolved, That any officer who solicits promotion, transfer or change of employment from any individual Commissioner, verbally or otherwise, shall have charges preferred against him and be brought before the board for conduct unbecoming an officer.

Resolved, That no former employee of the Police Department, who was discharged from the force for cause, or who has resigned under charges, shall be eligible for reinstatement.

POLICE BOARD OFFICERS.

President—Harry B. Hawes.
Vice President—William G. Frye.
Purchasing Agent—Andrew F. Blong.
Secretary—Thomas J. Ward.

Developments at Friday's meeting of the Board of Police Commissioners indicate in no uncertain manner that the policy of the new city administration to elevate the standard and increase the efficiency of the public service will be extended at once to the Police Department and that the harmonious co-operation of the municipal government with the police authorities will accomplish much in the line of economy and retraining.

Chief of Police Kiely's determination to enforce discipline and to bring the Police Department up to the grade of a military organization by recommending severe punishment in cases where officers are found guilty of violation of the rules of the manual, especially in regard to entering saloons and drinking on duty, was also clearly demonstrated, two officers being fined a full month's pay each for intoxication and another being assessed $10 for taking a single drink of soda water and whisky.

A resolution prohibiting officers from soliciting promotion, transfer or change of employment from individual members of the board and making them subject to a charge of unbecoming conduct and trial by the board for violation of the order was adopted, it being stated in the resolution that all such requests must be made through the Chief or to the entire board direct.

Another resolution declares that no person shall be eligible to appointment to the police force who has been dismissed from the force for cause or who has resigned under charges.

It was also decided between Mayor Wells, President Hawes and Chief Kiely to delegate to the police the duty of inspecting sprinkling, which means the dismissal of the inspectors hired for the purpose and a consequent saving of $20,000 a year to the city.

RESOLUTION CALLING FOR RETIREMENT.

In a resolution adopted by the board in executive session is embodied another measure of retirement, which President Hawes declares will save the city from $30,000 to $50,000 a year. This resolution calls on the police to enforce that section of the municipal code relating to the suppression of nuisances.

This means that the police will inspect the alleys and back yards to see that garbage is removed at the proper time. In the past from 15 to 25 inspectors have been constantly employed in the Health Department to seek out nuisances and report them. These men have also been charged with the duty of seeing that garbage is moved regularly. A Sanitary Inspector's salary is $60 a month. With the arrangement in force the inspectors will be dispensed with and the police will do the work.

Sixty-five transfers, which have been made by Chief Kiely with a view to strengthening the department and increasing its efficiency, were approved by the board. Eight Sergeants were included in the list. One patrolman—James McCafferty of the Mounted District—was promoted to a Sergeantcy for courageous action. One officer was dismissed from the force for sleeping on duty; another was dismissed for "brutally assaulting a citizen," who, in this case, was a street-car conductor. One patrolman resigned under charges.

The heavy fines which were imposed upon officers accused of various charges go to show that the board intends to make discipline the first consideration in the department. In several cases politicians appeared to testify in behalf of the accused officers. In each of these instances the effort of the politician proved to have been without avail.

As one police official expressed it: "Hereafter the men on trial had better tell their political friends to stay away, for to-day's events make it plain that Mayor Wells, President Hawes and Mr. Frye will brook no interference in the punishment of cases where charges are well founded. The test, where charges are well founded, is whether a superior officer will go farther than that of all the politicians in the town. If I am not mistaken, judging from what has transpired to-day."

SEVERE PUNISHMENT IN DRINKING CASES.

One of the officers on trial was accused of entering a saloon while on duty and taking a single drink of soda and whisky. The testimony was heard and a fine of $10 assessed. The policeman was loath to believe his ears. He leaned forward and asked, as if involuntarily:

"What's that, $10?"

He was told that he had heard aright. When he returned to the corridor and spread the news that one drink had cost him $10 the officers charged with drinking while on duty who had not yet appeared before the board felt themselves growing shade paler.

Another officer who had absented himself from his beat without cause was fined $15, and this furnished cause for additional excitement in the corridor.

The punishment of Sergeant John Lally of the Third District for absenting himself without leave furnishes one of the best instances of the failure of a "pull" to accomplish the desired result with the new board. Lally reported sick the day after the election and was gone two days. Investigation showed that he was not at home in this time.

At his trial he presented testimony to show that he was justified in absenting himself. His superior officers, however, detailed the result of their investigations of the case, and the board assessed a fine of

REORGANIZATION OF THE BOARD EFFECTED.

Friday's meeting of the Police Board was the first that has been held since February 27. The resignation of Mr. Woerner and the illness of Mr. Ballar prevented a meeting until this week. When William G. Frye was appointed and Mayor Wells qualified as a member, the obstacles were removed.

The board was in session for six hours—one of the longest meetings on record. An immense amount of routine business had accumulated, and this had to be disposed of before the other matters could be taken up. The first of all, reorganization was effected.

President Hawes and Purchasing Member Blong tendered their resignations at the outset, declaring that it was proper that the new members should have a voice in the organization of the body. Both were re-elected to the offices they had resigned and Mr. Frye was elected vice president to succeed Mr. Woerner. The office of treasurer was not voted upon. It was the plan to elect Mr. Ballard to this position, but he was absent on account of illness, and as a result no action was taken.

Chief Kiely submitted the resignation of his secretary, Charles H. Jones, and it was accepted by the board. The Chief immediately appointed William R. Faulkner to the secretaryship and the appointment was approved.

The routine of affairs, such as promotions, approval of transfers and various applications, were then considered, and the trials of officers under charges were begun. This consumed three hours. When all the cases had been disposed of the board went into executive session to discuss measures for the good of the department. The resolutions, which are given in full elsewhere in this article, were the outcome of these deliberations.

It was close to 8 o'clock when the board adjourned.

Mayor Wells, when asked how he had enjoyed his first experience on the board, declared that he was satisfied that, if all meetings were as long as the initial one, he wouldn't have time for anything but Police Board duties.

BOARD ADOPTS
REFORM RESOLUTIONS.

Following are resolutions adopted by the board in executive session by unanimous vote:

Whereas, the proper way for promoting requests for transfer, promotion and change of position is to direct such requests officially to the Board of Police Commissioners or the Chief of Police, and not to individual members of the board; therefore, be it hereby

Resolved, That any officer who solicits promotion, transfer or change of employment from any individual Commissioner, verbally or otherwise, shall have charges preferred against him and be brought before the board for conduct unbecoming an officer.

Resolved, That no former employee of the Police Department, who was discharged from the force for cause, or who has resigned under charges, shall be eligible for reinstatement.

Resolved, That no officer shall collect or solicit contributions for the purpose of procuring presents to other officers, unless first having been granted permission by the Board of Police Commissioners.

Resolved, That the Chief of Police be instructed to report to the Board of Police Commissioners the next meeting the number of men employed in clerical positions in the department and to recommend such reductions as to him seem proper.

Whereas, Article 11, chapter 2, of the municipal code of St. Louis, providing against nuisances, has not been strictly enforced in the past; be it hereby

Resolved, That the Chief of Police be hereby instructed to see that it is rigidly enforced in the future.
